Pet Product Review - Rockin' doggy tees, tanks & hoodies by Toru

OMG! These dog clothes are the cutest thing since Shirley Temple! The good people at Toru sent the panel a hoodie to review and we had 2 perfect models. I haven't had this much fun since I played with Barbie dolls!

Cute, cute, cute! Our first model is Noah, an adult Papillon. Noah loved the hoodie and so did his owner. It was very easy to get on him and he was obviously quite comfortable in it. I love his "bling" showing in the second photo, it adds to the whole "cool dog" aura he's got going on. Noah wore the hoodie for the rest of the day.

We just couldn't resist trying the LOVE hoodie on our newest family member, Shakespeare, a 9 week old Great Dane puppy. Housetraining a puppy with a thin coat of fur in Denver, where the temperatures have bottomed out lately, has been a challenge. Shakespeare loved the hoodie and was willing to stay outside longer when he had it on. The hoodie's lining is super soft, a fact I'm sure Shakespeare appreciated. Adorable!

After checking out the dog clothing selections at a couple of retail pet stores, I can honestly tell you that I saw nothing comparable in quality, detail, or price!

Perfect Christmas gift! You can purchase Toru tees, tanks and hoodies at the Toru online store: $32 for hoodies, $26 for tees and tanks (sizes range from XXS to XL). Be sure to watch for the "charity" tees, tanks & hoodies, when you buy one of those, 15% of the proceeds are donated to Paws 4 You Rescue, Inc!
